

Starlight Movie Nights

Special Holiday Movie Nights in December

Friday, Dec. 14 and 21, 2007
7 p.m.
Rice Stadium

FREE Movies! FREE Popcorn! FREE Warm Cider!

Celebrate the holiday season with your neighbors at Rice University's Starlight Movie Nights. Bring blankets and lawn chairs and sit on the field or sit in the stands and enjoy free family movies on the stadium's jumbo screen. Free popcorn and warm apple cider will be provided while they last, or bring your own refreshments (no glass containers please).

Enter Rice Stadium through Gate No. 1 on the southwest corner of the stadium near Greenbriar and University Blvds. Free parking is available in Rice's Greenbriar Lot (campus entrances 13A and 13B on Greenbriar Blvd. between Rice and University) or at the site of the Tuesday Farmers Market (campus entrance 9 on University Blvd. near Montclair). For a list of other open invitation events, visit www.rice.edu/neighbor.

Each December movie night will include a short feature followed by a feature film:

SHORT FEATURE

FEATURE

Friday, December 14

How the Grinch Stole Christmas \(1966\)

A Christmas Story

Friday, December 21

A Charlie Brown Christmas

The Polar Express

Due to an unforeseen conflict, the previously scheduled December 7 Movie Night has been cancelled.